Menifee Elmore has developed a new kind of corn. The shoot comes out of the ground and produces a nice ear of corn without any stalk or tassel above it. Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—To what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartics and liver pills? Our answer is, "They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is precisely a medicine." Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

Gov. Beckham among them.

Rev. J. McCloskey Blaney, of Frankfort, made the introductory address, which was followed by addresses by the moderators of the synods of Kentucky. The charge to the president-elect was delivered by Rev. H. Gelon Hout, of Versailles, after which the inaugural address was made by Dr. Blinn.

MR. ADAM W. CARPENTER

Mr. Condor is as good a member as the Christian church ever had and his place will be hard to fill. We heartily commend them to any locality they move to, as being worthy of trust and respect.

E. C. WALTON

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.
ALTON BROOKS PARKER,
of New York.
For Vice President.
HENRY G. DAVIS,
of West Virginia.
For Judge Fifth Appellate District,
JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL, of Georgetown.
For Congress
GEORGE G. GILBERT, of Shelby

"YOUNG" DAVIS continues his record breaking tour of West Virginia. He is talking to his neighbors in a practical fashion, as one plain man might talk to another. They know him. They have seen him advance from a brakeman on a railroad to the highest position one can attain - a secure place in the affections of his fellow citizens. His fortune was earned by incessant toil. His rugged health, like his honest nature, was an inheritance and he has conserves both by a careful life. West Virginia honors this good old man, and it will show its confidence in him by giving him and Judge Parker its electoral vote.

IT is unfortunate that brothers should seek office against each other, but in the case we have in view not much ill feeling will likely result. In the 11th district Hon. George E. Stone is the democratic nominee and his older brother, Judge W. S. Stone, is the nominee of the prohibitionists. They both live at Monteagle and it is a 100 to 1 shot that neither will move to Washington after March of next year.

DOWIE, who claims to be the second Elijah, has commanded his followers to vote for Roosevelt because he says Roosevelt is against "a government of the people, by the people, for the people." The occupant of the white house will not be likely to appreciate this just compliment of the so-called Prophet of Zion.

THE democratic party has never offered a better nor cleaner ticket than the one that will be found on the ballot under the rooster. Vote for it and you will be proud enough of it in the years that are to come to tell your children and your children's children about it.

FOUR years ago to morrow the present editor of this paper took charge and thanks to a liberal constituency the wolf hasn't gotten entirely in his door yet. May we keep out.

OHIO's governor is imitating Teddy Roosevelt with a Negro at the Arcade Hotel in Springfield. The colored gentleman's name is Sully James.

LESS than three weeks until the election and no enthusiasm yet. Can't somebody do something to stir things up?

TEDDY entertained the other day but Booker's name did not appear in the list of the notables present.

POLITICAL.

Chicago's registration is no greater than it was in 1900, and the political workers are disappointed at the outcome.

The Georgetown Times offers a prize for the rural mail carrier or guager who has not been assessed by the publican campaign committee.

Henry G. Davis ended his whirlwind campaign through West Virginia at Wayne. During the trip he traveled 1,300 miles and spoke in 75 cities and towns. Mr. Davis expressed the belief that the State will go democratic and says such is the opinion of the party leaders.

The Kentucky State Grange in session at Cynthiana adopted resolutions urging the establishment of the parcels posts and postal currency and the passage of a law giving women the right to vote. Gov. Beckham addressed the body, advocating a better education for farm boys.

The enthusiasm of the New York democrats for Parker and Davis is having its effect in all the doubtful States East and West. New Jersey, Rhode Island and Connecticut are responding with particular promptness to the demand for a safe and sane administration of national affairs.

William J. Bryan spoke in Louisville and New Albany last night to crowds that exceeded all expectations. His Louisville audience packed Phoenix Hill Park. Not less enthusiastic was his New Albany reception, where in open air between 10,000 and 15,000 people heard him.

MIDDLEBURG.

The writer is in receipt of the democratic campaign text book from national headquarters, which he prizes highly.

The M. E. parsonage has lately been painted and repaired inside and out. William Miller is erecting a "business" building near his shop.

Mr. William Myers, who was greatly improved, suffered a relapse and is still very poorly. Geo. Wesley is lying dangerously ill with flux and fears are entertained for his recovery. Little Martha Dye is battling with malaria.

Rev. M. M. Roundtree, the new pastor of the M. E. church is here, and will move his family from near Clay City within the next few days. The new pastor preached Sunday, Sunday night, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and was well received.

W. F. Martin, a veteran of the Philippi insurrection has a relic in the shape of a company locker belonging to Co. B., 27th Mich. Inf., during the War of the Rebellion. It was given to Mr. Martin's father during the war when the Michigan troops were held in subjection.

The name of Judge W. S. Stone will appear on the ballot as the Prohibition nominee for Congress from this, the 11th district. Besides being one of the very best lawyers in the State of Kentucky, Judge Stone was a gallant soldier of the Confederacy, having followed the stars and bars under the dauntless Morgan. He is also a brother of Hon. George E. Stone, the democratic nominee for the same office, and owing to his great popularity will poll a surprising vote.

The following persons have visited the big fair since our last writing: Supt. and Mrs. J. C. Lay, Mrs. W. J. Godbey, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor and C. M. Hatter. Richard McDaniel, wife Wayne Rev. George E. Baker, the blind editor of the Boroide Commercial, spent a couple of days here in the interest of his paper and obtained quite a batch of subscribers. Besides editing and publishing one of the newest local sheets in Kentucky, Rev. Baker preaches to four churches and is in charge of the Baptist Colportage work in Wayne county.

Middleburg is at last to have a bank, and that it will be a money maker no one will gainsay. The Farmers' Deposit Bank, of Middleburg, has been organized with a capital stock of $15,000 and work will begin on a $4,000 brick building in the course of a few days. The location of the bank will be on the site where the parsonage burned a few years ago, near the Baptist church. Messrs. Ed Smith and D. A. Thomas, of New Castle, were the promoters of the enterprise and the stock was readily subscribed. Mr. Thomas will be cashier. None of the other officers have been chosen.

Here and There.

While handling an old shot gun, Ode, the 17-year-old son, of W. T. King, of Garrard, was shot and killed. Carl Bechman, a school teacher in Union county, was shot by Jas. Fletcher for chastising Fletcher's daughter. Louisville gets $400 annually for the privilege of sweeping her streets. The sweepings are used for making fertilizer.

A. J. Fish, proprietor of the Mt. Vernon Grocery Co., has sold his interest in the business to the barber, J. H. Harp. - Mt. Vernon Signal.

The jury at Harrodsburg returned a judgment against the Southern Railway Company for $15,000 for the killing of Engineer John Scanlon, of Louisville, last June.

Riley Coldiron has been indicted by the Breathitt county grand jury for perjury in connection with the indictment of W. Britton for the murder of James Cockrell.

Dr. George H. Purvance, assistant surgeon general of the Marine Hospital Service, jumped from a fourth story window of a Philadelphia hospital and was instantly killed.

Denial of the oft-repeated rumor that Miss Alice Roosevelt has become engaged to Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, was again made in the White House this week.

Clint Riley, colored, was dangerous cut in the head with a cleaver by James K. Moore, a butcher, at Pittsburgh. There are two gashes in the negro's head and he may not recover.

Govan Smith and Mrs. Arribella Bach have been indicted at Jackson, for the murder of "Lucky Jim" Bach. It is claimed that Mrs. Bach killed her former husband with Smith's pistol.

The court of appeals in a case from the Meaford circuit court has decided that assessors are not entitled to compensation on property listed exempted from taxation. The court says while an assessor is required to gather statistics there is no provision for pay for such work.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Oolic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawille, of Hartford, Conn. "Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose and in 15 minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." For sale by all druggists.

MATRIMONIAL.

Silas Carrier and Miss Mattie Denham were married at Highland Thursday.

Ross Singleton, aged 21, and Miss Mary Church, sweet 16, were married at Albert Church's yesterday.

J. C. Browning and Miss Mary Douboy, of Columbia, were married at the Willard Hotel in Louisville.

Mrs. Maggie A. Snow has been appointed postmaster at Kidd's Store and S. A. Douglas at McGuffey, Pulaski county.

Elise Haifield, son of the famous Devil Anse Haifield, was recently secured his brother's pardon from the Kentucky penitentiary, eloped with Miss Helen Holland, daughter of one of the largest coal operators in West Virginia.

Mr. Stewart Dawson, a prosperous young farmer of the West End, was married to Russell county, Va., a few days ago to Miss Lucy Fogate, a charming young woman. They came immediately to his handsome home, the Dr. Logan place, where they are now at home to their friends.

WALKER-PENCE — Two hearts that had loved for years were joined together when Mr. Walter Owles Walker and Miss Annie Pence were made one in a pretty ceremony by Rev. A. M. Pence at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The occasion was a happy and brilliant one and the Peace home was appropriately decorated for it. The bride, who is a beautiful young woman, was gowned in a very handsome white broadcloth suit, elaborately trimmed in elegant lace, with white bat to match and she carried a prayer book. Her traveling dress was a handsome cravat with green hat. Messrs. Ed Walker and Alfred Pence were the attendants and Miss Rita Belle Cloyd played the wedding march Mendelssohn's. The breakfast of a half dozen courses was elegantly served in the exquisitely decorated dining room. The breakfast over, Mr. and Mrs. Walker drove to Daoville, where they took the Q & C for Cincinnati to spend a week. On their return they will make their home with the bride's parents and will be at home to their friends after Nov. 1st. They were the recipients of many beautiful and handsome presents, which attest to some extent the popularity of the young pair. The bride is a charming young lady, beautiful of face and character and is highly cultured. She is the only child of her fond parents, who have spared neither time nor means in fitting her for a useful life. The groom is a son of Mr. A. K. Walker, of Garrard, but has been a citizen of this place for a number of years. He holds a responsible position in the Lincoln County National Bank and no young man in the community stands higher.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jno. S. Fox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store at only 50¢.

ALFORD—Mr. J. R. Alford, one of Stanford's oldest and best citizens, died about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after a protracted illness of a complication of diseases. The funeral took place in Buffalo cemetery Wednesday afternoon after services at the home of Mr. George D. Weareen conducted by Revs. P. J. Ross and Gilbert Glass. Deceased was a warm hearted, good man and the many friends he left sorrow at his taking away. Mr. Alford was born March 11, 1810, near South Fork, Lincoln county, this State. He came to Stanford when a mere youth to serve an apprenticeship with a blacksmith. Mr. Berry, and boarded with him in the same house in which he has lived continuously for 52 years. On July 20, 1837, he was married to Miss Amanda Jane Cox, of Mercer county. They spent their early married life in Washington and Anderson counties, coming to Stanford about 1852 where they spent the remainder of their lives, she having died Aug. 21, 1886. To them were born four children. The oldest and youngest died quite young and Mrs. Geo. D. Weareen is the only survivor. Mr. B. G. Alford having died May 23, of this year. Mr. J. R. Alford ran a livery stable and a blacksmith shop in this town for about 25 years and was also numbered among the old merchants, occupying the room in business where the first bank of Stanford was opened. He was converted some 50 years ago, uniting with the Methodist church. He had eight brothers and one sister, all of whom are now dead. In September, 1887, he was married to Mrs. Lucy E. Baldleman, who died Oct. 1, 1898, since which time he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Weareen. He had seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren living, two great-grandchildren dead. Four generations have lived in the Weareen home the past four years and gathered at the same table.

WITH a ticket headed by Parker and Davis, followed by Cantrell and Gilbert we don't see how any man with an iota of democracy can stay away from the polls. Yet some democrats will do, to their shame be it said. Your failure to vote may lose Lincoln county to the republicans. Help to prevent such a shame by going to your precinct early on the morning of Tuesday, Nov. 8th, and stamping in the circle under the rooster. Don't fail.

THE Madison County Medical Society met Thursday at Dr. Dunn's office. A very interesting program was rendered, among other things being a splendid paper by Dr. Steele Bailey, of Stanford, who for 19 years was secretary of the State Association and last year was its president. Dr. Bailey's papers are always interesting and our physicians here have styled him the Gladstone of the Kentucky Medical Society.—Richmond Register.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

111-2 Congress St.,

Portland, Me. Oct. 17, 1901.

I consider Wine of Carduus superior to any doctor's medicine ever used and know whereof I speak. I suffered from nose trouble with suppressed menses, which caused me to faint and stated ear. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have burning headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could hardly stand. I was so exhausted and disengaged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Carduus came as a God-sent to me. I had a change for the better within a week. After sixteen days treatment I recovered without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Carduus is simply wonderful and I wish that no suffering woman knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Bruce
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Carduus cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are disengaged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Carduus now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Carduus today.

I consider Wine of Carduus superior to any doctor's medicine ever used and know whereof I speak. I suffered from nose trouble with suppressed menses, which caused me to faint and stated ear. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have burning headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could hardly stand. I was so exhausted and disengaged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Carduus came as a God-sent to me. I had a change for the better within a week. After sixteen days treatment I recovered without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Carduus is simply wonderful and I wish that no suffering woman knew of its good qualities.
